Longines GP Latinoamericano GALA and LONGINES FAMILY AWARD

On Friday 3rd of March, during evening hours, Valparaiso Sporting Club offered a Gala Dinner in honor of the attending delegations and authorities. With a staging worthy of such special occasion, Longines and IFHA gave a special recognition to the Ceriani Cernadas family, a Longines Family Award, granted to acknowledge the important trajectory along three generations and for the contribution of the Ceriani family to the horseracing world, which knew how to go beyond the borders of Argentina to the rest of the World.

Mr Juan-Carlos Capelli (Vicepresident of Longines and Head of International Marketing) and Mr Louis Romanet, (Chairman of IFHA) toasted to the years of joint work and awarded Hernán and María Inés Ceriani Cernadas.

The soirée ended with a performance of BAFOCHI (Chilean Folk Ballet), who offered a remarkable musical, choreographic and visual show, which took the audience to a journey across the different cultures of South America.

MR. LOUIS ROMANET and MR. JUAN-CARLOS CAPELLI: ILLUSTRIOUS VISITORS OF VIÑA DEL MAR

On the evening of Saturday 4th of March, OSAF Chairman offered a dinner for the International horseracing authorities in the renown Club de Viña, occasion in which Mayor Virginia Reginato gave Mr. Louis Romanet and Mr Juan-Carlos Capelli the distinction of "Illustrious Visitors" of the city of Viña del Mar in a meaningful ceremony.

LARC FEGENTRI MAIDEN CUP 2017

For the second consecutive year, and thanks to the agreement with LARC, the international day of LGPL became the setting for FEGENTRI Maiden Cup, an international tournament of amateur lady riders which in 2016 had been run at Gavea racetrack and in this occasion was run on the turf track of Valparaiso Sporting Club.

Eight were the lady rider contestants, members of the European Federation presided by Nathalie Belinguier. The race, reserved for 3 year old fillies and run over 1 kilometer, was won by LA MAS CHIQUITA (CHI), ridden by Belgian rider Sarah Vermeersch.

The champion is property of Stud Gamboa and trained by Juan García V.

LONGINES PRIZE OF ELEGANCE

For the first time in South America, Longines and OSAF organized a Prize of Elegance, Ladies and Gentlemen edition.

Featuring a distinguished jury and over 50 contestants, in the minutes leading to the running of Longines Gran Premio Latinoamericano 2017 at Valparaiso Sporting Club, there was a pause in the midst of the racing programme in order to give place to the finalists parade in this traditional pageant where - under the motto "elegance is an attitude" - Longines was pleased to award each of the winners with a watch from the Saint-Imier Collection.

The panel of judges included Mr. Juan-Carlos Capelli (VP of Longines and Head of International Marketing), Mayor of Viña del Mar Ms Virginia Reginato, Mr. Louis Romanet (Chairman of IFHA), Mrs. Nathalie Belinguier (President of FEGENTRI) and Mrs. Angelita Fernández (wife of OSAF and Sporting Club President). The conduction of the parade and the prize giving ceremony was in charge of Caroline Strussmann, Brazilian journalist and winner of the Prize of Elegance edition 2016.
