VISIT OF IFHA AND JAPAN RACING ASSOCIATION (JRA) AUTHORITIES TO BUENOS AIRES IN OCTOBER

Following the running of Gran Premio Latinoamericano in Rio de Janeiro on Saturday, October 18th, Mr. Masayuki Goto (IFHA Vice Chairman, Executive Advisor of the JRA, and Vice President of the Asian Racing Federation) and his wife, Mrs. Yumisa Goto, Mr. Tomoaki Hashimoto (General Manager of the JRA offices in New York), and Mr. Henri Pouret (IFHA Vice Chairman and COO of France Galop) traveled to Buenos Aires to continue their visit to the major racetracks and stud farms in our region.

On Monday 20th during the morning they visited San Isidro Racecourse Training Center to witness the morning workouts and then visited some of the Studs housed at the racetrack.

Afterwards, on the occasion of the running of Japan Racing Association Stakes (L) at Palermo Racecourse, they enjoyed a luncheon where they were joined by the Ambassador of Japan in Argentina, Mr. Hiroshi Yamauchi, and his advisors, Mr. Kenji Maehigashi (Advisor of the Embassy) and Mr. Ryo SASAKI.

The guest International authorities took part in the prize giving ceremony, presenting trophies to the winners.

On Monday evening they joined President Juan Villar Urquiza for dinner at the Jockey Club Argentino premises.

On Tuesday morning, the delegation visited Vacacion Stud Farm and Carampagne Stud Farm and then they took a tour around the city.

We emphasize the importance of the visit of distinguished international authorities to our region, which strengthens South America's ongoing collaboration and integration efforts at a global level, and we appreciate the hospitality of those who made this possible.
